STEP.1 ABOUT BUSAN.

1. Introduction to Busan

BUSAN, a bustling city of approximately 3.7 million residents, is located on the southeastern tip of the Korean peninsula. The size of Busan is 765.10km² which is 0.8% of the whole land of the Korean Peninsula. The natural environment of Busan is a perfect example of harmony between mountains, rivers and sea. Its geography includes a coastline with superb beaches and scenic cliffs, mountains which provide excellent hiking and extraordinary views, and hot springs scattered throughout the city. Busan enjoys four distinct seasons and a temperate climate that never gets too hot or too cold. Busan is the second largest city in Korea. Its deep harbor and gentle tides have allowed it to grow into the largest container handling port in the country and the fifth largest in the world. In the coming years, capacity is set to grow further with the opening of the New Port. The city's natural endowments and rich history have resulted in Busan's increasing reputation as a world class city of tourism and culture, and it is also becoming renowned as an international convention destination.

2. Festivals

1) BIFF

Busan International Film Festival: Busan International Film Festival (BIFF), held annually in Haeundae and Nampodong in October, is one of the most significant film festivals in Asia

2) Busan Sea Festival

Busan Sea Festival is the most significant sea festival in Korea which shows the attractions of Busan, the City of the Sea. It's held at six beaches in Busan simultaneously in the summer

3) Busan Fireworks Festival

This annual festival is held in October at the Diamond Bridge, which is a significant attraction of Busan with tremendous high-tech fireworks.

4) Busan International Rock Festival

This festival is held at Samrak Riverside Park under the slogan of “Music + People + Nature”

5) Jagalchi Festival

Busan Jagalchi Festival is Korea’s biggest seafood festival that is held at Jagalchi Market.

It promotes characteristics.

3. Tourist Attractions

1) Haeundae Beach

Haeundae, the largest beach in Korea, is conveniently located and boasts its 2 km-long white sand beach, shallow waters and a wide selection of amenities (hotels, condominiums etc.) Haeundae Beach is one of the finest beaches in the world with a gorgeous coastline, refreshing walking paths and scenery, and a variety of entertainment facilities. It also offers plenty of things to see and enjoy year round such as the Busan Aquarium, Dongbaek Island, Orukdo Island, Dalmaji Hill, the Yachting center and hot springs

2) Gwangalli Beach

Gwangalli Beach is considered an ideal summer vacation spot because of the clear ocean and waves that are not too high or calm, as well as its easy access from downtown Busan and convenient location. A spectacular night view of the Gwangan Bridge makes Gwanganlli Beach one of the most famous beaches in Korea.

3) Youngdusan Park

Youngdusan means “Dragonhead Mountain” The name came from the shape of the mountain that looks like the head of a dragon rising above the sea. Standing 120-meters high, Busan Tower has an observation deck which commands a spectacular view of Busan and the surrounding sea at a glance. The view is strikingly beautiful, especially at night.

4) Igidae Park

At Igidae Park, located in Youngho Dong, visitors can enjoy a scenic drive overlooking outstanding ocean and bizarre-looking rock cliffs. It is also a famous fishing spot.

5) Taejongdae

Famous for its fantastic scenic view along the seashore, Taejongdae offers visitors magnificent scenery with towering cliffs and intriguing rock formations such as Shinsun-bawi and Mangbuseok.

6) Nurimaru APEC House

The name “Nurimaru APEC House” was made from the combination of Nuri (world, globe in Korean), Maru(top, summit in Korean) and APEC house. Thus “ Nurimaru APEC House” means “ the house where world top figures get together for APEC meetings”. It was used for the 2nd APEC leaders ‘meeting and leaders’ luncheon during the APEC summit held in November 2005

7) Busan Cinema Center

Busan Cinema Center(Dureraum) is set to confirm the Busan International Film Festival's(BIFF) place as one of the top film festivals in Asia. The multi-story center boasting the world's largest roof and cutting-edge outdoor stage, located in U-Dong Centum city, Haeundae District, offers a land of 30,217 square meters but spans a total floor space of 54,335 square meter, The theater has one story underground and nice stories above ground.
