

What do we expect from our Buddy's?

- 1) A BAU Buddy is expected to get in touch with incoming students before arrival.
- 2) Will accompany the incoming student to apply for a residence permit, a phone card, health insurance, tax office and a transportation card.
- 3) Will be present with the incoming students during the orientation week (for 5 days).
- 4) Will guide the incoming student in getting used to the social environment.

- 5) Will assist the incoming student in making course selections in SAP system as well as assisting the students in finding their academic advisors, finding classrooms and computer labs, and instructing in the use of the university wireless system and library.
- 6) Will provide help to the student in the case of an emergency such as health issues.

What does Buddy mean?

We have a number of Erasmus+ and World Exchange students who are coming to our university for one or two semesters. We are looking for teammates to assist them by being their friends and helping them out to get used to Istanbul and Turkish culture.

A BAU Buddy is;

- 1) Eager to make international friends.
- 2) Extrovert.
- 3) Have strong communication skills.
- 4) Can represent our university well.
- 5) Fluent in English and preferably can speak other languages.
- 6) Aware that people may get offended over some words and respects the background and identity of the people he/she communicates with.
- 7) Sincere.

I am aware of my responsibilities and I understand the importance of the duties mentioned above.

IMPORTANT DATES
(please mark the days you'll be in Istanbul and be available)

For Buddy Orientation: 6 February 2023

With Students: 13-20 February

Please note that you have to be present in Istanbul no matter what during these 7 days.

If you feel that you may not be as willing as you are right now, please reconsider applying.

Being a BAU Buddy is mostly a fun duty, however we rely on your help during the orientation week. Your unexpected absence will result in overburdening your BAU Buddy friends.
